

F-CRIN National Coordination Office

An entry point to the F-CRIN infrastructure

The National Coordination Office represents, supports and leads the approved components and makes its expertise available to all clinical research actors.

Encourages and assists the F-CRIN infrastructure's development

- Initiates and promotes projects
- Facilitates project execution
- Pools skills
- Achieves shared objectives

Pooled operational skills to support the F-CRIN infrastructure

- Monitoring, coordination and scientific evaluation of components
- Support for a quality process approach
- Assistance for developing and executing European projects
- Assistance for developing projects in partnership with industry players
- Assistance for access to national and European funding
- Occasional support for certain clinical trials
- Development of training
- Communication support

An ISO 9001-certified Unit, in support of "quality" of the labeled components:

- the quality policy of the coordination [1]
- The coordination has been ISO 9001 certified since November 2017.

Source URL: <https://www.fcrin.org/en/about-f-crin/f-crin-national-coordination-office>