« Explain to me clinical trials [1]»: the success of an innovative project

The poster for the training course "Explain to me clinical trials [1]" has been selected among the three best posters of RARE 2015 [2].

The François Aupetit Association [3], OrphanDev [4] (one of F-CRIN's service platform), F-CRIN [5]'s Head Office and the Tous Chercheurs [6] association work together since 2014 for the training and

This collaborative project materialises in the organisation of an annual training course « Explain to me clinical trials [1]» destined to patients and patients representatives, but also in the completion of an educational film whose dissemination is planned for 2016.

Within RARE 2015 [2] (26th and 27th of november 2015), the François Aupetit Association [3], OrphanDev [4], F-CRIN [5] and the Tous Chercheurs [6] association have submitted a poster [7] to the selection committee, on their innovative initiative on training and informing patients on clinical trials. This poster, in attachment at the end of this article, has been selected among the three best posters of RARE 2015 [2]. This is for the entire team an additional acknowledgement of the relevance of their approach.
